OSHA 10-Hour General Industry Training Program

February 9, 2010, 8:00 am – 2:00 pm • February 10, 2010, 8:00 am to 2:00 pm
Madison Lakes Training Center, Dayton, Ohio

Cost: $150 (includes all materials, class certificate and wallet card, continental breakfast and lunch).

Proceeds to go to our scholarship fund to assist local students and members pursuing EHS degrees, certificate programs or safety and health training.

Why should you attend? Here's why: This training is designed to:

- Improve your hazard recognition skills of the real and potential hazards in the workplace
- Know your rights and responsibilities as an employer and employee
- Determine which OSHA standards apply to specific service and manufacturing sectors
- Understand the components of an effective safety and health program, and the value of safety and health to the employer and employees
